

In The Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois

A Minor

Petition #

ORDER OF HOME CONFINEMENT

 Pre-Adjudication

 Pre-Dispositional

 Dispositional

This cause now coming on to be heard upon the petition filed herein and the appearance of the parent(s) respondents and the minor being now in open court in his/her own proper person and the court having jurisdiction of all parties to this cause and the subject matter, finds that:

- There has been a finding of probable cause and urgent and immediate necessity and that the minor respondent is subject to confinement in the Juvenile Temporary Detention Center.
- The minor respondent has been adjudicated a delinquent minor and is pending a Dispositional hearing and is subject to confinement in the Juvenile Temporary Detention Center.
- The minor respondent was placed on probation and a violation of probation hearing is pending against respondent and that there has been a finding of urgent and Immediate necessity subjecting the minor to confinement in the Juvenile Temporary Detention Center.

Having considered the nature and circumstances of the pending offense(s), the history and delinquency charges and the propensity of respondent to abscond, the court finds that the unconditional release of respondent, while pending either adjudication, disposition or under an order of probation, would not provide the necessary protection of respondent or property of another, the court places the respondent on home confinement in the home of his/her parent(s) or guardian(s) in lieu of secure detention under the supervision of the probation department.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT THE SAID MINOR RESPONDENT BE DETAINED IN THE HOME OF HIS/HER PARENT(S) OR GUARDIAN(S), SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. MINOR must appear at all subsequent court hearings;
2. MINOR must reside and remain within the home of his/her parent(s) or guardian(s);
3. MINOR'S absences from home are limited to school attendance, emergency medical attention, religious services and other structured outing when accompanied by a custodial adult, and with the approval of the probation officer;
4. MINOR'S visitors are restricted to only those approved by parent(s), guardian(s), or probation officer;
5. MINOR must attend school and return home immediately after his/her last class;
6. MINOR must make himself/herself available to a probation officer's visits and telephone calls for the purpose of verifying compliance with this order;
7. MINOR must not consume or possess any alcohol or controlled substance;
8. MINOR must not violate any criminal statute of any jurisdiction and shall not possess a firearm or any other dangerous weapons;
9. RESPONDENT must _____.

THE TERM OF HOME CONFINEMENT WILL EXTEND TO _____ AND THE COURT HEREBY RETAINS JURISDICTION OF THIS CAUSE FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING SUCH FURTHER ORDERS, AS THE COURT SHALL DEEM TO BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE MINOR RESPONDENT AND THE PUBLIC. VIOLATIONS OF THIS ORDER MY RESULT IN THE DETENTION OF THE MINOR RESPONDENT WITHIN THE COOK COUNTY JUVENILE TEMPORARY DETENTION CENTER.
